Artist KIMBERLY BROOKS gives a presentation of her journey creating The Stylist Project, a multi-year art project wherein Brooks creates portraits of the most influential stylists and style-makers styling themselves. She discusses how subjects are selected, the visual inspirations and process of making the portraits, and the power these people wield in the aesthetics of our culture.

Brooks will be joined on stage by two of her subjects: JEANNE YANG, who for over ten years has been styling Hollywood's A-list, including Robert Downey Jr., Tom Cruise, George Clooney, and Katie Holmes; and stylist ELIZABETH STEWART, former creative director of the New York Times Magazine, W Magazine, and Women's Wear Daily, whose celebrity client list includes Cate Blanchett, Amanda Seyfried, and Kristin Davis.
